Listen to Wife And Take Advice, Says Gov. Glenn

GOVERNOR GLENN Of North Carolina, Who Declares Men Should Follow Advice of Women.

Woman's Intuition Superior to Man's Reason, He Declares.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22 .- "Always take your wife's advice. Woman's intuition man is unwise who scoffs at feminine judgments. I never yet disregarded my Gcv. R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, on the question of woman's power and oman's sphere. Here is his counsel to husbands, young and old.

In a brisk, breezy, enthusiastic interview, punctuated frequently with epi-grams, the governor from North Carolina, who has been visiting here, tackled the question and disposed of it in an argument that hit the nail squarely and emphatically on the head.

That Governor Glenn has strong cor victions on other questions than the 214-cent railroad rate was very quickly

Listen to Your Wife.

"I advise every man who would be specessful to listen to his wife's counsel in business affairs," was his prompt response to the question, 'Does woman's judgment really count?" "I should say it does," he asserted

"The woman who is really a inat confronts him. I have atways ilsened to my wife's advice. My custom for years has been to go home to my wife and daughter every evening after the day's work was done, and consult with them on my future movements. I have invariably found their counsel just the thing I needed. I never went contrary to my wife's intuition that I did ont regret it."
Governor Glenn has only one opinion

Governor Glenn has only one opinion on the question of the woman in busi-ness, and it is a most decided one.

Teach Women Business.

Every girl and woman in the country should have a strict and thorough business education. No matter how fortunate a girl's immediate circumstances, she should be given a complete business training, just as a man. That is the way we are training our girls in North Carolina. That is the object of our State normal school. We intend that our girls shall be as finely equipped to meet the world as our boys. It is a dreadful mistake to leave a girl without any definite training whereby she may earn a livelihood in case of necessity. I believe the reason many women go into wrong paths in life is simply because they are helpless when thrown suddenly on their own resources."

"What particular branches of education would you advise for women?"

"Let them be trained to be first-class stenographers, bank cashiers, professional nurses, bookkeepers—anything they have talent for. But let their equipment be complete—as a man's is." fortunate a girl's immediate circum-

"Then you do not agree with Mr. have an ambition to succeed in man's

"I certainly do not. A knowledge of business is not likely to spoil any woman's chances of winning a good hushand. It would, on the contrary, increase her chances, in my opinion."

One could not help wishing that every woman whose husband advocates eternal cooking, darning, and dishwashing could have heard Governor Glenn's next emphatic assertion:

"No woman can be a real companion who must spend all her time as cook and housekeeper."

"Please say that again," was requested "It sounds good."

He complied, and added, "It is unreasonable of any man to expect his wife to meet his needs as a real companion if he does not provide the means for her to become so. A wife should have some leisure to study and develop herself along intellectual lines. A man who holds the opposite idea lowers the standard for wifehood and womanhood.

Make Home More Attractive.

The husband is wise who takes his wife's advice. Woman's intuition is superior to man's reason.

Epigrams By Gov. Glenn.

No man should marry a woman to make a cook or a housekeeper of her. What a man wishes when he marries is a helpmeeta companion.

A knowledge of business never yet spoiled any woman's chances for matrimony.

How to train children? Bless you, make them obey - that is the first requirement. If you can't accomplish that with love and coaxing, do not hesitate to use the rod.

It is the woman who knows something besides housekeeping that succeeds in keeping her husband home from the club at Every wife should aim to understand her husband's business She should fit herself to be his companion in every sense.

People were happier then. But as for bringing up a child in the way he should go, my advice is, first and foreman is unwise who scoffs at feminine judgments. I never yet disregarded my wife's intuition that I did not regret It."

Here, in a nutshell, is the opinion of would have peace in the house for a season."

Governor Glenn dwelt on the neces sity for compelling obedience from chil did not force him to obey them in his childhood. He was so accustomed to having his own way that when he met a man who opposed him he shot that man. That is only one case I have observed which points to the folly of parents who are too easy with their children. The doctrine of love is all right. But when love and coaxing fall to work. I say, do not hesitate to use the rod."

"It's the old hackneyed advice," he responded, laughing, "but the only practical solution: Make home more attractive than the club."

He then made a remarkable statement. "I have belonged to a club for twenty-wo years, but have never spent more han four nights at it away from home n all that time."

Veering to the topic of how to raise whildren, he was asked: "What do you hink of the modern sterilized baby, brought up according to rule and rote?"

"Sterilization has done more to drive propie insane than anything else. In our grandfathers' day nobody thought unything about germs or the necessity are sterilizing everything a baby touch."

BETHANY DEFEATS ELECTRICAL TRIBE

For six innings the champion Bethanys, of the Sunday School League, and anys, of the Sunday School League, and the National Electrical Supply Company's team battled for the lead in a sharp, snappy game, on the White Lot last evening, the Bethanys winning out, 3 to 2. The pitching of Richard and the bating of Dugan, of the losers, were worthy of notice.

The hitting was light on both sides. Each team is credited with three miscues, but the game was fast.

DETROIT ACQUIRES CRACK SLAB ARTIST

MILWAUKEE, Wis. Aug. 22.-Jack Warhop, the crack pitcher of the Wis-consin League, has been acquired by the Detroit team, of the American League, and will report for duty at the close of and will report for duty at the close of the Wisconsin season, September 22.

The Detroit team has been after Warhop all summer, but Comiskey had an option on him for $1,000. This option expired August 10, and Hughey Jennings lost no time in picking up the bargain. Warhop has a great record in the State League. He had pitched twenty-seven games to date and has only lost two, one being a tie, after thirteen innings of play. Last year Warhop was drafted by Los Angeles, but refused to go to the coast, preferring to stay with Freeport another year.
